Angerer's 2014 Grüner Veltliner Eichenstaude opens with a clear and spicy bouquet, which intertwines some very discreet oak flavors with the toasty aromas of a crispy roasted zander and croutons; whereas the bright fruit aromas remain discreetly in the background. Full-bodied and intense on the palate, this is a rich, firmly structured and densely woven wine with a lemon-flavored, grippy and prolonged finish. This excellent Veltliner seems to be relative to Burgundies and should be aged for another 2-3 years, at least. Angerer's 2014 Grüner Veltliner Kies comes along almost as tropical, fresh and spicy as an Alvarinho from the Minho in northern Portugal. Passion fruit and pineapples mingle with legumes, pears and limes on the elegant and inviting nose; these aromas lead to a medium-bodied, elegant, perfectly balanced, and persistently fruity palate with a very good and aromatic finish. Everything is perfectly arranged in this lovely, slightly mineral and really stimulating Gruner. You will love it. The 2014 Grüner Veltliner Loam offers a deep and fresh, rather coolish, white pip fruit aromas on the nose, which indicates apples, ripe pears, starfruit, white pepper, limes and wet clay. Round and fruity on the palate, this is a rich and viscous, powerful Veltliner with a touch of charming sweetness and a lingering salinity. Very clear and elegant, well balanced and with a well-structured, stimulatingly salty finish. Jesus, this opens lovely! Delicate, pure and fresh white fruit and lemon flavors mingle with yeasty layers on the complex, stony and mineral nose. This leads the 2014 Grüner Veltliner Spies to a piquant and fruity, very elegant and charming performance on the palate. This is full-bodied yet delicate and very elegant Grüner Veltliner with a hint of sweetness and Mosel charm that lift it up. The finish reveals a very delicate fruit and fine piquancy. Absolutely nice. Importer(s): Weygandt Metzler Importing, Ltd., Unionville, PA 19320 , (610) 486-0700, www.veygandtmetzler.com

I had the 2013 Grüner Veltliner Spies 12 months ago and found it really excellent, but I am surprised how quickly it matures. It is absolutely drinkable today and opens with caramel and white pepper flavors on the nose; whereas on the palate, this rich, elegant and very juicy wine is round, piquant and finishes with tension and a mineral purity. However, I would not store it for too long and drink it over the next five years. Importer(s): Weygandt Metzler Importing, Ltd., Unionville, PA 19320 , (610) 486-0700, www.veygandtmetzler.com

Bright and fresh white fruit and citrus aromas intertwine with sur-lie flavors in the 2014 Riesling Ametzberg. The palate is lean, piquantly fresh and racy, medium-bodied and elegant with a crisp finish. This is deliciously clear and dry Riesling from the Kamptal, but is marketed as quality wine from Niederösterreich.
